The 5th Panzer Division took part in the invasion of Greece in April and was still being refitted when the Russian Campaign began. The division was finally committed to action in October of 1941 and operated as part of Army Group Center in the drive towards Moscow. The 5th Panzer remained in Army Group Center for all of 1942. The division continued to fight in the east, eventually surrendering to the Russians at Danzig in 1945.
