2nd Panzer Division
at start of battle.

In 1943, the 2th Panzer Division, as part of Army Group Center, participated in the large battle at Kursk. By the end of the year, the division was completely used up and was sent to France for rebuilding. The division never returned to the Eastern Front, instead fighting at Normandy and The Battle of the Bulge, before finally surrendering to the American Army in May of 1945.
