

SS
6th Infantry
Regiment

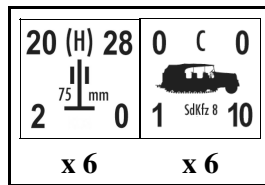

SS
7th Infantry
Regiment

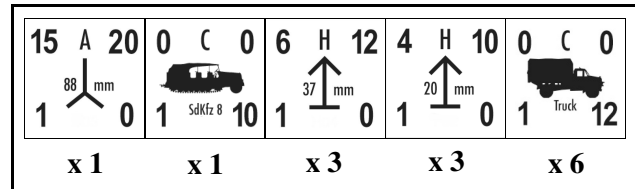

SS
8th Infantry
Regiment

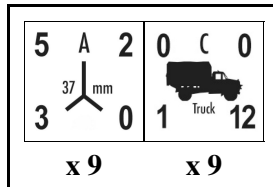

SS Nord
Artillery
Regiment

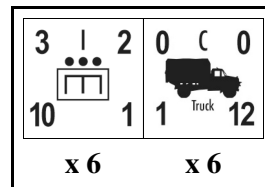

SS Nord
Anti-Aircraft
Battalion

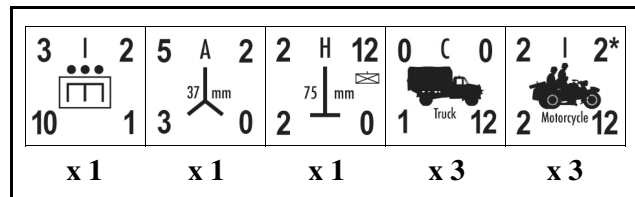

SS Nord
Anti-tank
Battalion

SS Nord
Engineer
Battalion

SS Nord
Recon
Battalion

The SS Kampfgruppe Nord Division was originally formed as a garrison unit in Norway and contained many Swedes, Norwegians, and Danes. The division fought in Finland against the Russians and was under Finnish command for part of the time. In June of 1941, the division was part of XXXVI Corps under Armee Norwegen. Later upgraded to a mountain division, this unit fought 1,214 consecutive days in the subarctic.